Do not fear! It's not all kagoules and soggy sarnies, Parkdean offers its expert advice on how to experience the hippest locations the UK has to offer on a budget and reminds us that we can still enjoy a caravan experience without having to bring one with us, by staying in one of their luxury caravan holiday homes!

Parkdean has 24 award-winning family holiday parks situated in some of the most beautiful locations in the UK, offering a huge diversity of fun for all ages: free kids' clubs for tots to teens: great live family evening entertainment, indoor and outdoor swimming pools, adventure play areas, surf schools plus activities such as archery, laser combat and fishing.

– Burgh Island, South Devon

So the celebs fly into this hip location on helicopters, but you could arrive at Parkdean's Challaborough Bay Holiday Park, just a stones throw from Burgh Island and enjoy the stunning views of this fabulous location without the extortionate cost. Explore the outstanding natural beauty of the local area, spend days enjoying stunning coastal paths or catch the sea tractor to Burgh Island to do some celeb spotting! Previous celebrity visitors to this magical place include Agatha Christie, Noel Coward and Josephine Baker!

– English Riviera, Torquay

Why spend your money jetting off to the French or Italian Riviera's when you have the Queen of the Riviera right here in Torquay! The local area of Torquay has a huge amount to offer holidaying families including miles of beautiful beaches, a stylish waterfront and wealth of shops, restaurants and cafes. At Parkdean's Torquay Holiday Park, why not treat yourself to the brand new modern comforts of a two bedroom Marldon Caravan or three bed Paignton Caravan? The entire family can holiday from just £469 for 7 nights from 29 May!

– Sandbanks, Dorset

Johnny Depp, Liam Gallagher and Kylie Minogue have all been spotted house-hunting at this playground of the millionaires and celebs alike. Sandbanks is renowned for its glitterati but fear not, you can experience the glamour of the region without taking out a second mortgage! Dorset is served by two of Parkdean's holiday parks; Warmwell and Sandford, offering a range of accommodation from standard tent pitches and caravan holiday homes to superb luxury lodges. - Rock, Cornwall

Rock is known as "Britain's Saint-Tropez", due to its popularity with the upper classes and A-listers alike. Hugh Grant, Jemima Kahn and Prince Harry are all regulars to the village which boasts a stunning beach and a wide choice of up-market restaurants and bars. While affluent holidaymakers, including Mohammed Al Fayed, make use of the nearby helipad and stay in expensive hotels, why not try out Parkdean's St Minver Holiday Park, just a stone's throw from the famous North Cornish village. Or treat yourself to a 'real celeb style' holiday and stay at St Minver's exclusive Trehawks site in a luxury Trehawk lodge, fitted with all mod-cons, such as dishwashers, wide screen TV's and en-suite bathrooms. If you'd rather stay in a caravan in true camping style over May half Term then opt for the park's brand new three bedroom Chestnut Caravan. Treat the whole family to a four night break in a caravan holiday home commencing 31 May from only £376.

- Watergate Bay, Cornwall

Watergate Bay is one of North Cornwall's best known beaches. Popular with surfers and those who want to be away from the crowds of Newquay, Watergate Bay is one of the most spectacular expanses of beach in the whole of Cornwall. Home to Jamie Oliver's Fifteen restaurant, the bay is no stranger to famous faces! Actor Hugh Grant, former James Bond Pierce Brosnan and super model Claudia Schiffer are all big fans of this beautiful landscape so grab your camera and head down to the Cornish coast for some holiday pics to remember! Parkdean's White Acres Holiday Park is in close proximity to Watergate Bay and offers a gateway to the region for those wanting to sample the high life without the associated cost.
